To whom it may concern,

I myself am moving, actually. My dad is in the Air Force and we have been here for about five years now. Me and my family have learned that Cannon is a great place. Many people from both Portales and Clovis depend greatly on Cannon. Also all of the people that live in Portales, and Clovis, and Base housing will have to move and you will have to find new bases for those people to move to. You will have to do that for every single person. But like I said we are moving because my dad is retiring after 20 years. These are only a few reasons you should NOT close Cannon Air Force Base.

Sincerely,

Gabby Davila
