To Whom It May Concern:

I believe that Cannon Air Force Base in New Mexico is very important and you should reconsider on closing the Base. I feel, No, I know that the Base is very important not just to Military Attendents but to the people of Roosevelt and Curry county. The Base provides a safe feeling towards the two counties. I also believe it provides jobs for people and help for the towns people. My father is a retired Navyman and it's a big benifit for us to have the Base there when we need it whether its for medicine or toilet paper. There is alot of Military people who are going to leave and never come back. Durring this time these people will have to sale the houses that they were living in. To whom will they sale it to? Most
