Dear Mr Chairman,

Thanks for going above and beyond the call of duty for me. & apologize for filling the plane. The quality of the hearing was very good. Please relay this in that the important thing is the communities feel they got to tell their stories + this was well done.

Really enjoyed meeting your son. He seems like a fine young man and let me know if it can be of help as he pursues his future. He has a good game plan.

Thanks again, you have been a great role model for me and I appreciate all your help. I trust you implicitly + will support whatever your findings.

Sincerely,

John
