DCN:4528

Rapid City Journal

Monday, June 20, 2005

© 2005 Rapid City Journal, 507 Main St., Rapid City, South Dakota 57701 www.rapidcityjournal.com

Good morning

Medical

Scientists believe they have found the first predictor for Alzheimer's disease.
Page A5

City looks to wow

■ Officials strive to get maximum turnout and effect at Tuesday's BRAC hearings.

BRAC 2005

By Celeste Calvitto
Journal Staff Writer

On Tuesday, the Black Hills

ed last week.
The stage is Rushmore Center, and the
hree members of
ommission, who
with taking an in-
ook at the Depart-
nse list of recom-
closings.
e two-hour hear-
l be video presenting the military
orth, and testi-
outh Dakota's
delegation, Gov.
and Rapid City
aw. Their re-
timed to the

creens will proj-
dings for the e members that
hopes the hear-
The BRAC

Bruce Rampelberg

Jim McK

commissioners will li some questions. Ther
will depart for other l
in base towns throug
nation, as those they
hind await the review
"The BRAC commi
is not our adversary," McKeon, president of City Area Chamber of
merce, said. "They wa
derstand our compell
ments for Ellsworth.
comfortable in that th
commission is made
knowledgeable people
ership roles. If we ma
point, they will take it

ure the BRAC commiss ommunity depends on
er, wife of military retiree Wayn

Od

W
ser

FA
Mayb
Bosc
to get
Mi
stabb
pen a
head
bell to
ing Th
She
simple
meanc
called
ience s
Poli
the wo
ter on
did not
"She
with a
he said
to sleep
she wok
a worko
Skuz
not seri
not seek
Skuz
returned
calling police.

opo
time

S T A F F

DEFENSE BASE CLOSURE AND REALIGNMENT COMMISSION

RAPID CITY, SD
JUNE 21, 2005
REGIONAL HEARING