WASHINGTON, D.C. 20350-1000

DCN 8436

MM-0007-F1
IAT/AD
17 March 2003

From: Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Infrastructure Analysis)
To: Vice Admiral Michael Cowan, Surgeon General of the Navy
Subj: ESTABLISHMENT OF THE MEDICAL JOINT CROSS-SERVICE GROUP

1. As part of the 2005 Department of Defense base realignment and closure (BRAC) process, the Secretary of Defense directed that common business-oriented support functions be analyzed by joint cross-service groups (JCSGs). One JCSG has been established for Medical functions, and the Vice Chief of Naval Operations nominated you for membership on that group. A copy of the Under Secretary of Defense (Acquisition, Technology and Logistics) tasking letter to Lieutenant General George Taylor, the chairman of that JCSG, is attached.

2. You can anticipate a meeting of your JCSG in the very near future, since a great deal of work must be done to satisfy the 31 March deliverable mentioned in the tasking letter. To help in your preparation for engaging with the JCSG, I plan to do a BRAC 2005 orientation briefing for all Navy and Marine Corps JCSG members on Wednesday, 19 March, from 0900-1100 in Room 4D710 at the Pentagon.

3. If you have any questions before the orientation briefing, please give me a call at (703) 697-6638.
