

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

A telephone interview was conducted between Mr. James Hanna (BRAC Navy-Marine Corps Team Leader) and RADM William Klemm, USN, Retired, 22 July, 2005. BRAC General Counsel, Mr. David Hague provided an overview of Government ethical regulations as a reminder to RADM Klemm who entered the discussion as a private citizen without compensation or connection to any organization and with the understanding that he was expressing his personal opinion.

The discussion topics were public shipyard capacity issues and the future of the national industrial base.
