Dear Mr. Van Saun:

It was great to see you again recently. I wanted to personally thank you for your time and effort. Please rest assured it is very much appreciated.

I am confident we can achieve a positive outcome regarding this situation through cooperation and teamwork. I believe we all have the best interest of West Virginia at heart, and I am looking forward to working with you again in the future.

Thanks for all of your help. Please accept my most sincere best wishes for your continued success.

With warmest regards,
